

INT. AN ALL WHITE INFINITY ROOM

There is a stage, a long line of people, some grouped as families, some couples, and some individuals. A podium is set stage right, with an AUCTIONEER looking at notes. A CLERK sits behind a counter off stage left. Various individuals stand in the front of stage with paddles.

A family of four with a HUSBAND, WIFE and 4 KIDS walks up a couple steps and shuffles to the center of the stage nervously.
